

SPONSORSHIP & EXHIBITOR CONDITIONS

1. Statement of Purpose: Tennessee Osteopathic Medical Convention is for scientific and educational purposes only and will not promote the Company's products, directly or indirectly.
2. Control of Content & Selection of Presenters & Moderators: TOMA is ultimately responsible for control of content and selection of presenters and moderators. Company, or its agents, will respond only to TOMA, who will disclose financial or other relationships between Company and speaker, and will provide this information in writing. TOMA will record role of Company, or its agents, in suggesting presenter(s); will seek suggestions from other sources, and will make selection of presenter(s) based on balance and independence.
3. Disclosure of Financial Relationships: TOMA will ensure disclosure to the audience of (a) Company funding and (b) any significant relationship between TOMA and the Company or between individual speakers or moderators and the Company.
4. Involvement in Content: there will be no "scripting," emphasis, or influence on content by the Company or its agents.
5. Ancillary Promotional Activities: no promotional activities will be permitted in the same room or oblique path as the educational activity. No product advertisements will be permitted in the program room.
6. Objectivity & Balances: TOMA will make every effort to ensure that data regarding the Company's products (or competing products) are objectively selected and presented, with favorable and unfavorable information and balanced discussion of prevailing information on the product(s) and/or alternative treatments.
7. Limitations of Data: TOMA will ensure, to the extent possible, disclosure of limitations of data, e.g., ongoing research, interim analyses, preliminary data, or unsupported opinion.
8. Discussion of Unapproved Uses: TOMA will require that presenters disclose when a product is not approved in the United States for the use under discussion.
9. Opportunities for Debate: TOMA will ensure opportunities for questioning or scientific debate.
10. Use of Contributed Funds: Funds should be in the form of a sponsorship made payable to the Tennessee Osteopathic Medical Association. All other support associated with this CME activity (e.g. distributing brochures, preparing slides) must be given with the full knowledge and approval of the Tennessee Osteopathic Medical Association. No other funds from the Company will be paid to the program director, faculty, or other involved with the CME activity (additional honoraria, extra social events, etc.). Funds may be used to cover the cost of one or more modest social activities held in conjunction with the educational program, which furthers the CME educational experience and/or allows an educational discussion and exchange of ideas. If Company sponsors a social event, the requirements set forth in Sections 1, and 3-5 will still apply.
